RED CROSS DRIVE BEGINS NEXT WEEK

Folks are you awake? Do you know that the second drive for funds for the Monessen-Belle Vernon chapter of the Red Cross is about at hand? It opens next week. Monday morning bright and early the big drive will be in full force. Men and women of the town will give of their time to make the quota of $40,000 a reality. This town has never fallen short of any expectations in any of its campaigns and let the second drive of the Red Cross go over the top.

A rather attractive sign was hoisted in front of the Red Cross headquarters this morning and the words of the far famed and muchly read railroad signs were somewhat originated. "Stop, Look and Listen," is what you read at railroad crossings, but at the Red Cross headquarters you read "Stop, Look, Loosen." It means loosening up quite a good deal to raise $40,000 in small contributions and just on the heels of a Salvation Army drive, but Monessen can be counted upon to get away easiest with things most difficult and this campaign simply means "put your shoulders to the wheel"

Volunteers Services as Railroader

—W E. Wreath, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wreath of 120½ Second street, has volunteered for cross-sea duty as a railroader and will leave today for Camp Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind., where he will go into military training, after which he will leave for France to take up his duty as flagman. Mr. Wreath before volunteering, was flagman in passenger service on the Monongahela division of the P. & L. E. R. R. He leaves many friends who wish him good luck and success. He was one of the two accepted from the national want column of the local board.

First Work of Motor Service Squad

The first official work since complete organization of the Motor Messenger Service Squad was performed yesterday by Miss Gladys Engle. The squad has placed itself at the disposal of H. Dallas McCabe to be used in the second war fund drive for the Red Cross.

Miss Engle yesterday in her machine, distributed literature to the chairman of the Lebanon Cross Roads and Kerr districts in Rostraver township, and was also instrumental in arranging a meeting for Red Cross workers at Fels church, Tuesday evening. Today at 3 o'clock Mrs. Willis McCook of Lock Four, was the first of the Motor Squad to appear at Red Cross headquarters, Sixth street, in full uniform.

Local Boys Enlist

—Two Monessen boys, Jesse J. Harclerode and William A. Pehl, enlisted in the the 34th Engineers at Omaha, Nebraska and are now stationed at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. Jesse has a brother, Chester A. Harclerode, who is now in France with the Truck Supply Train. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Harclerode of Donner avenue.

Expected To March

Don't forget that all ladies who registered for Red Cross work during the war, are expected to march in the big Red Cross parade at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Ladies and their friends will assemble on Eighth street between 1 and 1:30 o'clock. Ladies who find it inconvenient to wear a white skirt may wear a dark skirt and white waist, skirt to be 9 inches above the floor. Don't fail to show your patriotism.

CARD OF THANKS

Our deepest and most sincere thanks are hereby tendered our many friends and neighbors for abundant kindnesses shown during the illness and death of our little son Arthur. Those who furnished flowers and all who provided cars also have our thanks in the deepest sense. Such kindnesses are to be much appreciated and will never be forgotten by

1t. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hoon.

ACCUSED OF MURDER PATSY NATTALLI OF MONESSEN WILL FACE GRAND JURY FRIDAY

The case of Patsy Nattalli held for the murder of Tony Longo, on the night of February 2nd, will come before the grand jury at Greensburg tomorrow, and the case will be heard this week.

Saturday night, Feb. 2, at about 11 o'clock in a gun-fire riot, Antonio Scardazzone, alias Tony Longo, of Monessen, was shot to death, along with Joe Bassacogti and Antonio Bua of California.

The shooting occurred directly in front of the post office and created much excitement. It seemed the participants in the fight had some trouble, and were walking up street in a seemingly peaceable manner, when near the postoffice the party separated, each taking one side of the street and beginning to fire.

Tony was shot, taken to the Duquesne hotel office, dying later on the way to the Monongahela hospital in the Check ambulance. One of the other men fell dead along the hedge which surrounds the P. & L. E. grounds and the other almost directly in front of the post office. One of the men was instantly killed and the other died about ten minutes after being shot.

Their bodies were taken to the Wright morgue and prepared for burial.

Nattalli was held for Longo's murder, yet he claimed he was standing in front of the Olympic theatre when he heard the shots fired. He says he rushed to the scene and when he arrived he found Longo in the hotel office and accompanied him in the ambulance and was with him when he died. Nattalli claims he knows nothing about the trouble or the shooting.

Saturday, Feb. 2, two apparent strangers walked into Tony Longo's restaurant at 320 Donner avenue acting in a peculiar and suspicious manner and these are the fellows who are supposed to have attacked Longo later in the evening when all three were killed.

Anarchist Arrested

Peter Marnecco, aged about 40 years, was lodged in the county jail at Greensburg, having been taken there from Latrobe where he had been digging coal. The man faces a very grave charge. W. W. Sibray, inspector in charge of the United States Department of Labor, arrested the man under the direction of John W. Abercrombie, acting secretary of labor of the government.

Marnecco is charged with landing at an unknown port about January 1, 1917, and was found in the United States in violation of the Act of Congress of February 5, 1917. Above all he is charged with advocating or teaching anarchy, or the overthrow by force or violation of the government of the United States, or of all forms of law, or the assassination of public officials; that he has been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

The man behind the prison bars has very little to say. He denied that he landed in Mexico and crossed the Rio Grande; he denied that he was an anarchist, but at the same time he was talking he had a pencil and paper in his hand on which he had been writing. He tried to manufacture a smile and side-step every question that was asked him which indicated that he was "wiser" than he pretended to be.

Marnecco, immigrant authorities believe, is an anarchist of the worst Bolsheviki type. While employed in the Latrobe mines it is said he has been preaching and circulating Emma Goldman and Alexander Beckman's doctrines among Austrians in the coal and coke region.

Inspector Sibray, who has been working this case left immediately after placing Marnecco in safekeeping, for Johnstown, where he expects to arrest Marnecco's pal, an ardent disciple of Bolshevism.

To Have New Suits

The Monessen Volunteer Firemen are this week being measured at Meyers brothers store for new suits, which will be made and ready for their debut in the big Memorial day parade, and when the boys step out in line, they will present an appearance highly creditable to themselves and to the town, and with the firemen's bull-dog mascot "Fritz" right up on the front seat, and the paraphernalia washed and brightened up, our fire laddies will arouse enthusiasm from the people as never before. The firemen are to hold a meeting in the boro building this evening at 8 o'clock to complete arrangements for the Memorial day program.

Love Powders Lead to Court

A new Kensington triangular love affair which promised rather interesting testimony and possibly determining the influence of "love powders" came to an end in Judge C. D. Copeland's court shortly before noon yesterday, when Mrs. Frank Baysek and her nephew, by marriage, John Baysek, the defendant, pleaded guilty to charges brought against the aunt and nephew by Joe Baysek. John Baysek, the nephew, whose alleged infatuation for his aunt was the cause of jars in the Baysek family affairs, was fined $100 and costs and Julia Baysek, the wife and aunt, promised to return home with her husband, Frank Baysek and be a good wife.

A big array of New Kensington women, especially, were in court to testify in the case had it gone to trial. John Baysek, the nephew, is a young man making good wages and it was intimated that he induced his aunt to use "love powders."

Receive Instructions

The Monessen-Belle Vernon Chapter of the Red Cross has received instructions to hold back shipments of goods until further notice. The Emergency Fleet corporation has urgent need of the warehouse, and the Red Cross has temporarily allowed them to move in and use it. This will not necessarily stop the work at the workrooms, as goods can be stored at Monessen until a new warehouse is procured.

Press Comment On Denny and Scott

THE O'NEIL-SCOTT SHOW (Philadelphia Evening Bulletin)

There has been no more curious and amusing a performance in Pennsylvania politics for many a day than the present co-joint appearance of J. Denny O'Neil as a candidate for Governor, and John R. K. Scott as a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor.

It is thus that the public witness prohibition and anti-prohibition yoked together in a double clog dance after the style of the "Buffalo Boys" as experts in the external duplication, each of the other in step and garb, or after the manner of the Siamese twin conjunstion on those awkward occasions when Chang would want to take a drink and Eng would virtuously refuse one.

Moreover, what a beautifully moral link also connects the Billy Sunday cult and temperance unions of McKeesport at one end of the state with the habitant of the statesmanship in our Fourteenth Ward on the other

The O'Neil-Scott show seems to be particularly intended for the edification of "the churches and the clergy, and in that respect the advent with it of the accomplished moralist from that ward, is a masterpiece of votaries of virtue and the Vares in the Frog Hollow department of Philadelphia politics.

WHERE DOES O'NEIL STAND (Philadelphia Evening Ledger)

Highway Commissioner O'Neil, when questioned in Pittsburgh as to whether he would run as an independent candidate in the event of his defeat for the gubernatorial nomination at the primaries, is reported to have said that was "a matter for his Campaign Committee to decide."

This is not the answer that could be expected from a man seeking the high office of Governor of the Commonwealth.

Many persons who are expecting to vote for Mr. O'Neil at the primaries must hope that he has not been betrayed into making such a statement. It could only be construed as a purpose on the part of Mr. O'Neil to be a candidate, no matter what happens at the primaries.

If this is not the position in which Mr. O'Neil wants it understood he stands, the best service he can do himself is to enter a prompt denial and pledge himself to abide by the decision at the primaries. A man may be an independent candidate when he is free to be, but when he seeks a party nomination, claiming party support, and submits his candidacy for decision at the party primaries, he is justly expected to accept in good faith and be bound by whatever judgment the party voters render.

Many Fine Positions are Going Begging

Although our schools have been filled to capacity during the last year, we have not been able to fill more than half the high class positions that were offered, and the calls are coming in every day.

Every graduate has had a choice of several places as soon as he was ready.

In order to help supply this demand, we are running our school throughout the summer. If you have a good general education, a few months will fit you for a high class position.

Our modern Paragon shorthand will enable you to become an efficient stenographer in two to four months, less time than would be possible with any other system.

Call, write or phone for full information about our summer terms.

Norman Brown Exonerated By Jury

Coroner Heffran of Washington held an inquest at the Frye undertaking rooms at Charleroi to inquire into the death of Raymond Burgan, who died from a fracture of the skull after being hit with an automobile in front of his home on Lincoln avenue, Charleroi. Coroner Heffran summoned J. F. Hill, T. H. Myers, Charles Schmieler, J. K. Brumbaugh, Ira L. Nickeson and J. R. Chalfant as jurors who, after hearing the evidence, rendered the following verdict:

We, the jury, find that Raymond Burgan came to his death at the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, May 11, 1918, from shock due to being crushed when struck and run over by an automobile owned and operated by Norman Brown, the accident occurring at Lincoln avenue, near Third street, Charleroi, May 11, 1918. We find further that the accident was an unavoidable one, and exonerate said Norman Brown from any responsibility for the accident.

Babies Attend Meeting With Mothers

Thursday afternoon was notable for a most delightful gathering at the home of Mr and Mrs. John Menefee on McKee avenue. It was arranged by the superintendents of the cradle roll and home departments of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, Mrs. A. E. Horn and Mrs A. W. Davis. Over a dozen mothers brought their most priceless possession, their babies, while quite a few of the home department joined in the celebration. It was remarkable that there was no infant crying and the babes with wonder filled eyes looked at each other and did not neglect their surroundings either.

Miss Ruth Myford rendered a solo which was enjoyed by the mothers. She was asked to repeat at some regular service. The pastor and wife were present and led in a prayer for blessings upon all. A delightful luncheon was served after which each mother hunted up her child and faced homeward, the prediction being that many such gatherings will be held in the future.

FAILED TO RETURN QUESTIONNAIRE

Mitro Drohchevski, a Russian, unmarried, and a laborer at the Pittsburgh Steel mill, is being held in the borough lockup as a delinquent, or in other words a "slacker."

It was a few days ago that it was learned that Drohcheviski had evaded the draft law, and had failed to fill out and return his questionnaire. Yesterday he was taken before the Exemption Board and his case fully investigated; he was given a questionnaire which was filled out by Justice J. B. White.

The case was reported to State Adjt General Metrodropinezsky, and he immediately ordered the man sent to Camp Lee. It is said, he said he would go, if given a few days to straighten up his affairs here provided he was provided with a meal ticket during his stay here. Hence he was placed in a cell in the lockup and is being furnished his meals free in table de hote style.

The Exemption Board will hold a meeting this afternoon to determine as to whether they will send an official escort with him to Camp Lee, or whether he will be trusted to go alone.

Fun Short Lived

Earl Miller, aged 16, of Woolrich, despite his tender years knew that a girl loves a uniform and that a nice boy in khaki is too strong an appeal for easy resistance. So Earl, who has been working in Pittsburg and living in the home of his uncle, got him a uniform and every night, after supper, dressed himself up as a soldier and went forth seeking, not Huns but hearts to conquer, the police declare.

The boy made a mash, say the police, so many in fact that he became conspicuous and cruel agents of the Department of Justice, who are not allowed to wear uniforms, put the police on his trail. He was arrested in his uncle's home yesterday and is being held for the Government agents.

THE RED CROSS DRIVE

A man ought to be pretty thankful when he sees a Red Cross solicitor come around. If one is the right kind of a man, he has been dissatisfied with himself to have been doing so little for his country.

He has been thinking that millions of our boys will soon be standing up to the Teuton's gun fire and their barbarous practices. They will be taking the chances of a captivity almost as bad as death, and of wounds that will cripple them for life. They will be shivering in wet trenches, when we are comfortable in sheltered homes.

Meanwhile here in Monessen most of us are not doing our part. Subscribing to Liberty Bonds, of course. But that is merely a good business investment. No sacrifice about it at all. Planting a garden, let us hope. But that is merely ordinary prudence in times of high prices. No sacrifice about that either.

The Red Cross solicitor gives us the chance to make just a little bit of sacrifice in return for those who are giving us their all. We should accept it with joy, as just the kind of thing we have been wanting to do, but haven't had the chance. How it will help us to greet the boys when they get back, if we can feel that every time we were asked to give for their protection we responded cheerfully, even if it did scrape the bottom of our pocket books a bit.

There is no possibility of getting too much money. The more funds available, the better facilities, the better treatment can be given to the wounded men, the more of them will come through the valley of the shadow, and return safe to their rejoicing friends.

FLOATING WORKERS

Few industries are able to cut loose from tramp labor. In the newspaper game the tramp printer has been a characteristic type. The foreman may curse him and all his work and ways, and swear he will never tolerate his red and unshorn face again. Yet when rush times come, with jobs piling up and customers pawing the earth, anything on two legs that can set up a stickful of type looks good.

Many of these fellows are very plausible. When thoroughly sobered off and provided with a shave and clean linen, they may be fairly impressive. Frequently they are men of some education, and would have climbed well in life but for the fatal curse of drink.

Munition plants have been handicapped by men who take a job and then stay but a few days or weeks. Not all of these fellows are drunkards. Many of them are simply victims of their own irresolution, easily turned aside from their purposes by slight annoyances of discomforts.

New Jersey is trying to get at the floating labor nuisance, by requiring laborers to obtain employment under a card system. Applicants for work are required to present cards issued by the state, federal and municipal employment bureaus, showing where they last worked and why they left.

The employer who condemns a man except for grave reason might have it in his power to ruin a man's chances for finding work. Employment bureaus must see that justice is done to every honest and well meaning worker no matter how humble. But in most cases a faithful worker would get his recommendation without trouble. Floating laborers of the chronic type should learn that their vagrant habits are very unprofitable to themselves as well as to the community.

Crawls Under Table To Escape From Air Bombs

London, May 10.—A little woman who teaches school in the east end was visiting us last night when the air raid begun. She did an extraordinary thing.

"Please don't pay any attention to me for awhile," she said, and then she took a little book, a school text book perhaps, from her cloak pocket, and a candle from the mantel and crawled under the table. There while guns across the river roared away, she sat and read, heedless of the others in the room. When tea was made presently, as it usually is during informal air-raid parties, her's was passed to her under the table.

Wasn't that funny.

When the Boy Scouts' bugles two hours later announced the end of the danger, she came out. Doubtless, thinking an explanation was required she explained as follows:

"The air-raids didn't bother me at all until last summer, but ever since then they have affected my nerves. You remember the raid in which a number of school children were killed, out in the neighborhood of my school. That day I had taken my pupils to a little public square to play. You know they are all tubercular children and we have to keep them out of doors as much as possible.

"An aroplane appeared over head and most of us stood and watched it. That was the time something went wrong with the warning system and we had no reason to know it was a German machine until we began to hear explosions over the school house and to see shrapnel bursting around the machine.

"The children began to cry and to run to me. Some of them have tubercular hips and it makes me sort of sick yet when I remember how they tried to hurry, dragging their little legs along. They piled around me and hid their faces in my skirt and cried. I got them into a nearby house and kept them until the raid was over.

"Of course, none of them were hurt, but—well,, I haven't felt quite the same about air-raids since then."

Not very funny, was it?

VINOL MAKES GOOD BLOOD

Positive—Convincing Proof

Many so-called remedies for anaemia are only so in name. Their makers are afraid to prove their claims by telling what their medicines contain.

The only way to be honest with the people is to let them know what they are paying for. Here is the Vinol formula. When the doctor knows what a medicine contains, it ceases to be a "patent" medicine.

Cod Liver and Beef Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycerophosphates, Cascarin.

Any doctor will tell you that the ingredients of Vinol, as named above, will enrich the blood and banish anaemia and create strength. When the blood is pure and rich and red, the body is strong and robust.

You can prove this at our expense because your money will be returned if Vinol does not improve your health.

"A great net of mercy drawn through an ocean of unspeakable pain"

WE'LL WIN

What does it mean to you to know that your American Red Cross:

Is supporting 50,000 French children.
Sends supplies to 3,423 French military hospitals.
Provides 2,000 French hospitals with surgical dressings.
Is operating thirty canteens at the front line.
Is operating six other canteens at French railway junctions, serving 30,000 French soldiers a day.
Operates a movable hospital in four units, accommodating 1,000 men.
Is operating a children's refuge in one part of the war zone; and in another a medical center, and traveling dispensary, both capable of accommodating more than 2,000 children.
Has opened a long chain of warehouses stocked with hospital supplies, food, soldiers' comforts, tobacco, blankets, etc., all the way from the seaboard to the Swiss frontier.
Has warehouse capacity for 100,000 tons.
Has 400 motor cars and operates 7 garages, making all repairs.
Had shipped 46 freight car loads of assorted supplies to Italy from France within two weeks after it began operating in the former country.
Had a battery of motor ambulances at the Piave front four days after the United States declared war on Austria.
Started a thousand different activities in Italy at the time that nation was in its most critical condition.
Has established 5 hospitals in England and operates a workshop for hospital supplies employing 2,000 women.
And that 120,000 cases of supplies have been received at the Paris headquarters of the American Red Cross from your various chapters scattered throughout the United States.

What does all this mean to you? And that is but a fraction of the work your Red Cross has done and is doing. It means that without this ceaseless, heroic work of the American Red Cross we could never win this war.

Without your Red Cross quick, vital help to keep Italy in the fight for Liberty would not have been possible.

Without your Red Cross thousands of French soldiers now gallantly fighting for you at the front would have died of wounds, exposure and lack of food.

And great and wonderful as has been the work of the American Red Cross in the past, still greater and more wonderful must it be in the future—for now your boy is in the fight.

Your Red Cross cannot neglect France, England, Italy, Serbia, Roumania and little Belgium. It must give them all constantly increasing help, for the men of these countries have been fighting our battles.

But now we must all redouble our efforts and sacrifices for our Red Cross because a million mothers' sons are going to carry the stars and stripes to the greatest victory God has ever given to men fighting for honor and liberty.

With the help of your Red Cross your boy will win.

"A great net of mercy drawn through an ocean of unspeakable pain"

How Was the Last War Fund Spent?

IT is a fair question—and it is fairly answered in the detailed and itemized reports that have been published in the newspapers of every town and city of the land.

You never saw it? Then ask at the nearest Red Cross Chapter, or write, for the Red Cross wants you to know where your money went.

They say that Red Cross supplies have a way of coming through on time.

Italy surely has found us not wanting in promptness when her great trial came.

And Roumania—they said no allied nation could get through to help her dire need.

But the Red Cross found a way.

It's not always a cheap way—"Needs must" costs money. But did you give that money to be saved—or to save lives? Are you not willing to pay five dollars or fifty to bring something of comfort to a war racked, tortured mortal who but for you would surely die?

And of one thing you may be sure. Not one penny of that Hundred Million has gone for anything but War Relief.

In the Red Cross there is no high salaried bureaucracy, no extravagant administration expense. All of the higher officials and nine-tenths of the workers are unpaid volunteers.

The cost of raising and collecting the last War Fund was about one-half of one per cent., more than covered by the banking interest on the money.

Your Red Cross needs another hundred million to lighten just a little of the awful load of misery "over there." Your share is all that you can give—and then a little more.

Will you hold up your end?

You, who are suffering from any disease or condition that like a vampire, is destroying your life's blood, your nerve fluid, we want you to call without further delay and let us explain to you the cause and how easy a task it is by our medical system of treatment to make a new person out of you. We will examine you free of charge and give you an opinion that is based on a thorough knowledge of your condition, having spent years of our life in treating diseases. This fact alone is an assurance that in point of ability, we are far in advance of some specialists in our line treating diseases.

We have saved many whose cases were thought hopeless and might save you. If after examining you, we find your case incurable, we will frankly and honestly tell you so, and if we accept your case for treatment it will be because we can help or cure you. Can you ask anything fairer than this? Our fees are always in the reach of the most humble circumstances. When you consult us you consult a physician who has established a reputation for doing for his patients what he agrees to.

Thos. J. Hill

SCOTTDALE, PA.

Primary Election, May 21st, 1918

Adieu, John Barleycorn!

It surely looks like "Good Night" to Booze in the United States when, already, eleven of the twelve states that have squarely met the issue, have ratified the Federal Constitutional Prohibition Amendment. And five of the twelve (Ky., Md., Tex., Del. and Mass.) are so-called "Wet" states—the others (except R. I.) are "Dry."

Nor is there much comfort for the booze traffickers in the figures:

State Senators voting FOR Ratification.....278
State Senators voting Against Ratification..57
"House" members voting FOR Ratification..811
"House" members voting Against ratification 239

No wonder then that in consternation and in desperation, the Booze Interests are busy with "Camouflage Stuff" in an attempt to have American workingmen pull "THE WETS" chestnut out of the Fire!

"If they close up the saloon," the booze traffickers say, "American Workmen will LOSE THEIR JOBS!" While in the same breath they declare "Close up the saloons and American workingmen WILL THROW UP THEIR JOBS.

What do you know about that! They seem to think they can "Get" American workingmen both ways—Going and Coming!

Well there is Michigan, for example, where just recently they shut up the saloons. Have you heard anything about any "Labor Revolt" in Detroit or anywhere else in that state because the saloons were closed? Have workingmen "revolted" in the other "Dry" states in order to restore the "Industry" those states have outlawed?

Doesn't everybody know that even "The Brewers Big Horses," as well as their drivers have bigger and better jobs now than in the old "Wet" days.

Anyhow IS IT TRUE, as the argument of the Booze Barons IMPLIES—that American workingmen put booze above patriotism—the cup above country?
